NHS Scotland e-Library: Exploiting the Power of Knowledge in NHS Scotland

The NHS Scotland e-Library aims to empower the healthcare family and benefit patient care by providing high quality knowledge support throughout the patient journey. It is the primary vehicle for delivery of NHS Education's national strategy for NHS Scotland Knowledge Services Exploiting the Power of Knowledge in NHS Scotland.

The e-Library supports:

- Clinical and managerial decision-making
- Education, training and lifelong learning
- Research and development

Its audience includes:

- NHS staff of all disciplines – both clinical and non-clinical
- Students and teachers working with the NHS
- Partners in care in the voluntary and local authority sectors.
- Increasingly, it is working with partners to support the information needs of patients, carers and the public for self-care and shared decision making.

The NHS Scotland e-Library is a comprehensive provider of high quality knowledge content, including:

- 5000 + fulltext electronic journals
- 5000+ electronic books
