Person presents looking for naloxone

Is it for emergency use right now?

No Yes Person is requesting a "take home" supply of naloxone as they Follow process for national emergency supply of naloxone<sup>1</sup> are likely to suffer from, or witness an opioid overdose Check patient is aware how to use naloxone - ensure you remind them they MUST call an ambulance. Issue naloxone (nasal or injectable) - or pharmacy staff to Complete Training with person - Use "Grampian Take Home attend overdose with naloxone (consider giving/taking more Naloxone Key Points Sheet" as a prompt<sup>3</sup> than one kit) Explain different products to person and provide training on Record via UCF under public health services-Emergency most suitable product. Provide information both verbally and in Naloxone - Administered. written format where possible. Multiple kits can be supplied Record supply on NEO 360 - ensure this is done when the person is still in the pharamcy as you will need their details and Ideally record under the person who is overdosing CHI but you the naloxone details4 can record without a CHI If not able to record details on Neo at time of supply then there is a checklist that can be used to record details5 If patients details are not known use "dummy patient" Forename: Naloxone Apply a pharmacy address label to the kit Surname: Naloxone DOB 01/01/2000 Address: 1 Any Street, NF1 1AB For naloxone supplies made to people who attend the No label is needed for naloxone administration in an pharmacy for opioid replacement therapy reimbursement is emergency. This is covered in Schedule 19 of The Human included in the SMS patient monthly fee. Medicines Regulations 2012. For supplies made to anyone else, a £15 training and supply fee To claim for expired stock -record via UCF under public health can be claimed via the monthly claim's worksheet for each services-Emergency Naloxone - Expired, using dummy patient person supply(s) are made to. Replacement stock for this service can also be claimed for by This should not be claimed in the monthly claim submission. submitting invoices to PCCT along with the monthly claim form.

These do not need to be recoreded on NEO360

References:

- 1: Primary and Community Care Directorate (2025 PCA for emergency naloxone service update).
- 2: SLA_Take-Home-Naloxone_25.26.docx
- 3: Naloxone-Key-Information-Sheet-1.docx
- 4: 2020-naloxone-data-entry-neo-generic.doc (neo 360 guide)
- 5: Neo data entry checklist